To the Seniors:

May the word of God direct you
To do the things you should -
To live your life unselfishly
To know and choose the good,
And may the richest blessings,
That Heaven can bestow,
Be with you now and always,
No matter where you go.

CLASS PROPHECY

The year is 2003, of course, and today is June 1st. My name is Jeanette Bartlett, the new reporter for the Peebles Enquirer, which is now owned and operated by Danny and Darren Johnson. For my first assignment I'm gathering all the information I can about my high school graduating class of 1983. Many things have changed over the past 20 years and the Peebles High School Class of 1983 has had a lot to do with these changes. Every building has been re-modeled and decorated with modern equipment and the town looks like new.

Beginning with the local Pic Pac grocery store, we now see that Alan Gordley has become the owner of Pic Pac and has little pictures of himself on all his newspaper ads and on the windows of his store. Across the street at the Union '76 station, the new sign reads, "Partin's Union '76". Tom has really moved up in the community as a business person and is now the Mayor of Peebles. The town has really grown but the main stretch of town still consists of the same line of stores.

The dairy bars are still battling it out, only now Chris Arey owns Top-Jo and has changed the name to Chrissy's Place. She also cruises town in a new black T-bird. Tolle's dairy bar is now owned by Karen Hounshell and the new name is Karen's Korner. The Cardinal store has a new owner also. Jeff Beasley has taken over Cardinal and is competing daily with Alan's Pic Pac store. I see Vonda Farmer and her husband have moved back from Virginia and have taken over her father's Sohio station. I guess she'll have a lot of competition from Morgan Comb's Certified station, but I think she's doing fine because all seven of her kids look good and healthy. I think I'll take a look at the department stores in town.

Oh! Lely Vigil has taken over the Wagon Wheel and changed the name to Vigil's Wagon Wheel. And James Edwards is now running Schwartz's Department store where top model Ellen Rice can be seen modeling the latest items in Maternity Wear. The other shop in town is owned by David Ward where he features the latest in Mom's lingerie.

Well, if you need your hair cut, there is a good variety of salons. For the women there are three salons, one owned by Renee Bracken, another by Lisa Lane, and the third by Tangie Wilson, who is engaged to Mark McKenzie, the great basketball player for the Celtics. But if Tangie waits much longer for Mark he will have all her hair turned gray from worry--instead of just a few strands.

At least the police station still looks about the same, only it's a little bigger. The new Police Chief just stepped out of the front doors; I see Mike Sanders really looks happy with his new job. And his close associate and top right person, Holly Johnson can still be seen walking the streets--passing out parking tickets. There's a little photography shop in town now, which has just had its grand opening. Melody Lowe is the operator. I thought she might be able to fill me in on some information. Well, she certainly filled me in on a lot of things and some are really shocking. I sure never thought Karen Roeding, Lorna Tracy, Vickie Williamson, and Lisa McElwee would ever be go-go dancers at the new local night club. It was also a little bit of a surprise to find out that Matt Miller, Bill Armstrong, and Robert Williams are all pastors at local churches.

CLASS PROPHECY<sup>3</sup>

I guess the least shocking information Melody had for me was that Kim Graham is the Principal at the little school building and James McCann is Principal at the high school, with his head secretary being Crystal Ruggles. The Assistant Principal and head boys' basketball coach is Darren Cline and his personal secretary is Peggy Jennings. Now that could be interesting!!

Gee! Lisa Fitzpatrick seems to be doing fine. She and Robin own the County-Line Carry Out at Sinking Spring, along with ten others, statewide. Some of her regular customers are Jeff Williamson, Jimmy Smith, and Tony Estep. The rumor is that the three of them have made it possible for Lisa to expand statewide.

Other shops on the main stretch of town include Rick Frost's Body Shop, now owned by Tim Cooper. His helper is Mark Freeman. The Bob Malcom dealership is now run by Mark Sowards, who was top salesman for 10 years before buying the dealership. McFarland Ford also has a new owner. David Foster just bought the dealership last year after he made his fortune when he invented the All-Aluminum toilet. His mechanics are Darrell Lane, James Storer, and Steve Myers, along with his bookkeeper Diane Setty.

Well, I'm going to check out the restaurants, because I'm getting quite hungry. Let's see, we have Deanna's Diner which used to be the White Star, but is now owned by Deanna Wright. Giovanni's still has its original owner but I see Sherry Davis has moved up to head cook and her helper is Renee Lykins. The last restaurant on Main Street is now called Young's Yummies. Carma has a very nice place and I see one of the top lawyers in town, Darrin Stone, is eating his lunch inside. Maybe he could fill me in on a few of the cases he's had to deal with. Darrin didn't recognize me at first, but then he saw my big feet. He said there hasn't really been much going on, but a couple of his cases involved Angie Thomas and Marty Thompson--some of our own classmates! He said that Angie had become a professional arsonist and he figured it probably started when she tried to burn down Tranquility. And Marty as usual, keeps getting into high-speed, get-away races with the cops. Mike keeps putting him in jail, but everytime Marty gets out he says he is going to out run Mike some day. Darrin also said the new hospital in Jacktown is really nice. Marty Lambert is the Hospital Administrator along with Debbie Newkirk as the Director of Nursing. They say she has the hospital running smoothly. But, I guess they must get a lot of help from the head nurses. Kim Ray is the head nurse in the Pediatric Department, Teresa Justice is the head nurse over the Maternity Ward, and Becky Brooke and Jane Nichols are the top nurses for the main floors. Even the offices at the hospital are running smoothly. Head receptionist, Angie Crothers, makes sure everyone knows where they are going and what they are doing while the bookkeepers, Jennifer Ashworth and Debbie Forman make sure everyone knows how much they are paying for what they are receiving.

Well, Darrin mentioned something about a new shopping center behind the high school, so I guess I'll check it out. David McCarty made the plans for the shopping center after he received his education as a technical engineer. Some of the shops owned by my fellow classmates are Carrie Thompson - Printing and Office Supplies; Tim McClanahan and Bub Conway have a Pawn Shop with Karen Ryan as their bookkeeper. Gavin Countryman features the latest styles in swim wear. Gavin also is the head lifeguard for the Peebles Pool and he only lets those in to swim who buys his swim wear. Teresa Freeman has done well in the Army and now has a recruiting center here in Peebles. A few of our local Nuns can be seen walking through the shopping center almost everyday. Sister Kathy Harris and Sister Becky Rowe work very hard to support their church and to take care of their priest, Damon "Pope" Haught.

I guess our class hasn't done too badly over the years, and like every class that graduates from Peebles High School, we have a few farmers, housewives, and mothers. Some of ours include Mike Cline, Mark Fristoe, Ronnie Hopkins, David McClanahan, Johnny Sowards, Karl Smalley, Dennis Setty, Tony Partin, Bonnie Hopkins, Rachael McCann, and Shawna Herdman.

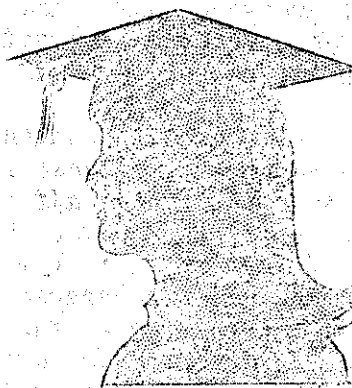

The top farmer around is Bobbie Newkirk with his pigs and the woman with the largest family is Teresa Swayne with her ten children.

Matt Davis has his own lumber yard where all four of his kids work and Steve Swayne owns a small business called Swayne's Farm Supply. His motto is "The place where things for your farm are cheaper somewhere else."

We do have a few people who made the big time. That is, Ronald Edmisten seems to be doing fine on his billion dollar oil ranch and Chris Stephenson has made millions as a race car driver. Randy Shively is doing pretty good too! He put together a band called "Like We're Like - Fer Shurr!" Randy is the lead singer and the other members of the band include Deanna Michael, Jeff Monroe, and James Reeves.

Peebles has changed a lot over the past 20 years, but even though it has grown a lot, it only has two banks. The Farmer's Bank is still located in the same place, but President Randy Huff has made sure the building has been kept in great shape. And to keep the books in perfect order his head teller, Tammy McMillan, works 40 to 50 hours a week. The new bank in town is the 1st Security Bank with its new President, Billy Lucas. Billy's office has big, beautiful green ferns growing in it and his head teller, Dee Dee Sowards, makes sure they are kept in perfect shape. The bank has just started a new policy. Billy says that every person starting a checking account should get a dozen packs of E-Z Riders papers. That may sound a little fishy, but don't worry-- Billy would never do anything wrong!

Well, our class reunion is tomorrow in the high school gym. The only thing I'm wondering about is what everyone will wear. I don't know if we're supposed to dress up or bring our sneakers for a game of basketball. Basketball is still the #1 sport in Peebles, so it could be a close decision.

MEMORIES

These memories are meant only to be comical. They are not meant to harm or embarrass anyone. So, while you're reading, be sure to look for the comical side of the situation.

REMEMBER WHEN:

Becky Brooke, in her freshman year, made her Home Ec. project--a terry romper, without a crotch . . . . Steve Davis

Tony Estep actually fell for our April Fool's joke . . . . Crystal Douglas

Kim Graham got stuck in a ditch while parking with Greg Salyers

Tony Partin "accidentally" got picked up for hitting a house a New Year's

M.L. used to like "Marcel" . . . . Jen

*David and David dragged me up the hall on my behind, then tried to pull me up the stairs and Mary Fulton came out in the hall and yelled at us . . .
Peggy Jennings*

Teresa Justice and R.H. went parking in front of the high school.

Kim Graham rubbing up against John Sullivan at the prom (thinking it was someone else).

Calling Darrin Stone "mysterious wad".

Kim Graham remembering all the clothes she needed to change into after the prom, and forgetting her shoes.

David Foster came to school in the morning for homeroom and he yelled, Oh, ----, because he left his lights on!

REMEMBER . . .

When Sam McCoy, Chris Fulton, and myself stood on the bleachers and danced to "Shadows of the Night!" . . . . Marty Thompson

The day when David W., David F., and I skipped down to the I.G.A. and got four Pepsi's for 40¢ and tried to hide them from Mr. Darby when we got back to school! . . . . Lisa McElwee

The night Melissa M. showed her moon to the world--and it wasn't cheese!
. . . . . Lely Vigil

When Marty T. passed me at Frog Hollow Road trying to out-run the Peebles Police Department! . . . . R. Edmisten

When Burnside (Sideburns) turned the whole Ac. Eng. IV class in for skipping and we all got into trouble . . . . David Foster

The time Kim went to the hospital to see "Dough Boy" and Sherman showed up . . . . . Tami

Becky Brooke never being able to light candles at F.H.A. meetings.

Darrin Stone saying "Roger Chompers out"

Elin Rice wearing the same orange socks two days in a row.

Giving Michael Sanders the nickname "Pube".

We would like to dedicate this poem in the memory of Kenny Austin. Kenny, even though not a member of the 1983 graduating class, was a close friend of many of this year's graduates.

A firm strong handshake, yet very gentle eyes,
A few memories of Kenny as we say our good-byes,
A part of our lives for but a few earthly years,
As we bid farewell to him, it will be through many tears,
He was a great blessing on those lives he touched,
Deeply missed by family and friends,
His time here is over, but his love doesn't end,
We'll think often of the special times we've shared,
Times made more special, knowing he cared,
Not physically here, but always deep in our hearts,
Our love, respect, and memories of him,
With which we'll never part.
