Class Prophecy of 1984

It was a rainy, cold day on my Georgia Plantation when I received my invitation to the class of 1984's reunion, and I sat down for a while to think it over. It seemed almost impossible that twenty years had passed since I graduated and saw most of my friends for the last time. I wondered how they had fared in life.

The invitation said R.S.V.P., so I dialed the given number and was shocked to discover that I was speaking with Cynthia Cluxton Dunn, who had volunteered to organize the gala event. Cyn told me she was doing quite nicely in her new venture, a restaurant called "Cyns Macaroni and Cheese Palace", and that she spent most of her time in the kitchen, sampling the main dish. I asked her to give me an update on what everyone from the class of '84 was doing now, and she was happy to do so, because she had a list of all the information right in front of her. I listened, fascinated at the wide variety of jobs and professions all my old friends had gotten into.

Marcie Crothers and Debbie Thatcher had made a mint from their company, "The Boones Farm Strawberry Hill Winery", and had generously donated over one hundred cases to the reunion committee.

Melody Clay finally married Steve Perry of "Journey" and settled down with him in San Francisco with their seven children.

Jim Pearson was now a folk singer, quite a long way from his "Judas Priest" days; Jennifer Douglas is his manager, and she follows him around everywhere, making sure he smiles for publicity photos.

Beth Ryan and Beth Robison are now working at the courthouse as 4-H agents and Home Extension Agent for Adams County. They had previously owned a child day-care center called "B & B Incorporated", but the children were too energetic for them.

A new TV station in Peebles, called "K-M.A.H.O.W." is owned by Melissa Mihalovich. M.A.H.O.W. has several well-liked programs, like Julie Singer's cooking program, "The Julie Child Show". Kerry Merz and Chris Conn are mechanical technicians there, and they keep things running smoothly.

Cyn then went on to tell me about the enormous shopping mall that Karen Gustin built right on top of Serpent Mound. This super modern mall features a wide variety of stores, including Jennifer Hilterbrans boutique called "You Can Be a Val", her husband, Rick Jenkins who is manager of Brian Smalley's Nautilus Shop, Damon Dawson's music store, a veterinary clinic owned by the Outram Twins, Tara and Teresa, and Carolyn Norris' beauty salon, "Punk is US."

Stephanie Copley and Greg Austin now own Christopher's Lounge in Hillsboro, and offer live entertainment on Saturday nights. Number one on the program are Jill Tong and Barb Turner, who mud-wrestle under the stage names Afa and Seka Samoan, Becky Pendell does a mean break dance, and Sam McCoy does his unique "Sammy Hagar" impersonations.

Rodney Huff was now a co-owner of a limousine service at Peebles International Airport. Other owners include Shelly Maddy, Chris Robinson, Kristi Stratton, Sue Workman, and Oliver Van Zant.

Becky Sears and Jill Sowards are stewardesses with Richard Penney's Airline Company, and Rhonda Wolford is in charge of the baggage and ticket counter in the terminal. Also in the terminal is Lori Rowe's restaurant, "Rowe's Rose Inn".

Class Prophecy of 1984

Of course, Cyn said, R.D. Malcom took over his dad's car dealership, and shares the profits with his partner, Terry Arnold. Mechanics at Malcoms include Arnie Wesley, Tammy Partin, Tim Applegate, Carl Boldman, and Jimmy Palmer. R.D.'s secretary is none other than Melissa Austin-Partin.

Bret Newman is now a leading brain surgeon at Peebles General Hospital, sharing the glory only with Rebecca Boerger, a leading neurologist. Head of the nursing staff there is Doris Stevens, and a few of her nurses are Karen Ward, Susan Flagge, and Cindy Scott.

Shane Carroll, Spencer Reed, and Tom Couser are now student teachers, spending their classroom hours with Mary Fulton! Poor Mary, she thought she would be rid of them in May of 1984.

Tami Graham is now principal at P.H.S. and spends most of her time fighting Evelyn for the use of the P.A. system. Evelyn can still giggle, cackle and scream pretty well, but Tami is better by far.

Teachers at the new 95 room high school include: Dave Henry-Vo. Ag., Brian Seaman-Guerilla Warfare, Roxanne Holbrook-Advanced Math and Physics, Matt Greene-Economics and Tight-Fistedness, and Tim Terrell-Phys. Ed. In addition to Tim's exercise classes, he also is cafeteria supervisor during first lunch.

Cyn then went on to tell me about the newest corporation in Peebles, an enormous farm consisting of most of the acreage in Adams, Brown, and Highland Counties, owned by Craig Bartlett, and his lovely wife Kathy (Ison), Rick Shoemaker, Richy Brewer, Richard Jones, Peter Boerger, David Hayslip, Gary Rowland, Earl Thorpe, Rick Carver, and Will Edwards. This huge corporation has boasted of profits in the millions.

A leading modeling agency in Peebles is owned by Renee Gardner, whose leading male models, Jerry Copley, Charlie Countryman, Danny Branum and Doug McFarland are known nationwide for their underwear ads. Also models at the company are Tina Highfield, Rhonda Davis, Debbie Rowe, and Debbie Moore.

Tammy Lucas owns the number one nursing home in Peebles, but lately scandal has surrounded this once prestigious business. It seems that several one-time P.H.S. teachers checked into the home, and never checked out. In fact, they haven't been seen since. HMMMMM! Kathy Johnson and Tammy Jones are co-owners with Tami and share in the profits.

Next on Cyns list was Andy Massey who had somehow managed to get himself elected sheriff of Adams Co., along with his deputies, Jody Gaffin, Mike Estep, Steve Hanson, Jeff La Coste and Tony Stacy. I'm not sure what kind of law and order this gang promotes, but I am sure that Adams County is a more interesting place in which to live.

Shane Tracy was elected Governor of Ohio in November, and has made some radical changes. Namely, the lowering of the drinking age to age twelve! Missy Ward, his trusty secretary, has a hard time keeping up with Shamus, but manages quite well.

Peebles State University or "P.S.U." has an excellent sports staff, consisting of two former class of '84 members; Judd Johnson is the football coach and Richard Smalley is the basketball coach. These two have led their teams to victory many times, and are looking forward to more.

Also at the University is Bret Unger as professor of agriculture, Mitch Miller, photography, Don Newkirk, physical therapy, and Doug Carson, art.

David Knauff, Deron Reed, and Wayne Adams are in a band called "Black Death" and Tom Johnston is their road manager and technical advisor.

Class Prophecy of 1984

The latest business popping up in Peebles is Sampo's Service Station owned by Sam Clurton, Philip Perry, and Otis Wade. Look's like Ronnie is going to have some competition.

And yes, Cyn said, the class of '84 even has a few wholesome, down to earth happy housewives, namely, Becky Smalley, Teresa Rose, Cindy Gibson, Dawn Gutman, Kim Thompson, Teresa Tolle, Tina Anderson, Malana DeVore, Tammy Cruea, and lastly, Chris Myers, who has made a fortune in the boxing ring. Chris can down a 300 lb. man with one punch, but then she always could.

By this time, Cyn and I had been on the phone for well over an hour, and had hashed over nearly everyone in the good old class of '84. It made me sad to know that in being away I had missed out on so much, watching my class mates grow in wealth, health, and happiness. At that moment when Cyn hung up, I decided that I would never again allow myself to be away for so long. From now on, I wanted to share the happiness with my friends . .

EPILOGUE: I went to the reunion and saw everyone in person, and everyone had a great time. It was decided that a reunion would be held every five years, so the closeness of the occasion could be experienced once more.

Tami Graham and Steve Davis

I predict . .

In the space below, predict where you will be twenty years from now. What will you be doing? Will you have any children, leave the Earth for frequent space travel, or be back at PHS for a class reunion? Describe your life, and then get this newspaper out on your 20-year reunion and see if any of your predictions have come true.

Special Thought

Dedicated to My Big Brother

"My Brother"

That guy down there who made that shot
He's my brother, can't you tell
He's doin' really good down there
Boy he sure plays well.

He made another shot, you see
He gives it all he's got
He just got that rebound there
Now he's really gettin' hot.

Boy he's really doin' good
He's really lookin' tough
Hey, ref can't you call a foul!
They sure are gettin' rough.

He sure is playin' his best right now
So there's no need to fret
Hey everybody look down there
That's my brother, Bret!

The Wrestler

Well, wrestling fans, this is the last edition ever of the highly acclaimed - THE WRESTLER. This edition is dedicated to the Seniors of PHS and since I am a senior this is the last of the WRESTLER. Some of the seniors are a part of wrestling because of the Universal Wrestling Alliance. They are: Brian Smalley, Judd Johnson, Brian Seaman, Bret Newman, Jerry Copley, Charlie Countryman, Doug McFarland, and Danny Brannum. The two referee's in the UWA are Richard Smalley and David Knauff. Enough of this, on to the matches!

Ric Flair is still the NWA Heavyweight Champion. Ric has held the NWA belt for over two years total in his two title reigns and is still going strong. Right now his top challenger is U.S. Heavyweight Champ Dick Slater.

Hulk Hogan is the WWF Heavyweight Champion after he beat the Iron Shiek in Madison Square Gardens. So far his biggest challenger has been Mr. Wonderful, Paul Orndorff. As Hogan himself says, "Hulkamania is running wild."

In the AWA area is the new Heavyweight Champion, Jumbo Tsuruta. Former champion Nick Bockwinkel is petitioning the AWA office because they stated that Black Jack Lanza is the number 1 challenger and he is not.

Wahoo McDaniel and Mark Youngblood are the new NWA Tag-Team Champions after they beat the team of Cowboy Bob Orton and Don Kernodle who had won the titles in an elimination tournament in Charlotte, N.C.

Andre the Giant is still the top most popular wrestler in the world. Dick Slater is the most hated.

Tito Santana is the new Intercontinental Champion after he beat the Magnificent Muraco in Boston Gardens.

The Spoiler is the top man in Georgia after he defeated Brad Armstrong for the National Heavyweight Title. Armstrong had won the title under the mask of Mr. R., who everyone thought was Tommy Rich, but when the match for the title was over Mr. R took off his mask to reveal Brad Armstrong.

The Road Warriors are still the National Tag-Team Champions. They briefly lost the belts to the team of Bret and Buzz Sawyer but won them back after about three weeks. They have held the belts for a total of about a year.

Ken Patera and Crusher Blackwell are the AWA Tag-Team Champs after they defeated the team of Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell.

Chris Adams is the World Class Heavyweight Champ.

Mr. Wrestling II is the North American Champion.

Angelo Mosca Jr. is the Mid-Atlantic Heavyweight Champ.

Ron Bass is the Southern Champ.

Kendo Nagasaki is the Florida Champ.

Former seven time NWA Champion Harley Race is the Missouri Champion.

Now is the time that every Journalist dreads to inform his readers about, a death. Mr. David Von Erich recently passed away in Japan. David had just begun a three week tour of Japan when he was found dead in his hotel room. He was a good wrestler and a top challenger for the NWA title when he was alive. Dozens of friends and relatives as well as other professional wrestlers attended his funeral. Goodbye, David, you'll be missed.

Well, that about wraps it up. I and all the other seniors will miss PHS. Good luck seniors and all at PHS, and SEE YOU AT THE MATCHES!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
