PEEBLES LADY INDIANS

CLASS "A" BASKETBALL
"DISTRICT CHAMPS!"

WOULDN'T IT BE GREAT IF

- . . . weekends were three days long.
- . . . it was as hard to get into trouble as it is to get out.
- . . . there were no cigarettes.
- . . . all of life's problems could hit at 16-- when we know everything.
- . . . there were no flies.
- . . . teachers could not schedule tests on the same day.
- . . . only those without faults would criticize others.
- . . . politicians lived up to their promises.
- . . . those who insist on being called "men" would act like men.
- . . . a moving mouth required a working brain.
- . . . we had two lives--one to make mistakes, and the second in which to profit from them.
- . . . there was a better way to start the day than getting up in the morning.
- . . . certain staff members would meet their deadline.
- . . . the school year went by as fast as summer vacation.
- . . . everyone would treat others as they would like to be treated.

READ-A-THON HELD

Mrs. Sowards' English classes recently participated in a Read-A-Thon. The classes chose a local organization to be the recipient of the money raised. The Amy Smalley Research Fund was chosen.

Students asked for sponsors for each book they read in order to raise the money. Awards were given for the student who read the most books, the student who raised the most money, and the student with the most sponsors.

Elizabeth McCann received $5.00 for reading the most books and raising the most money. She read 16 books and raised $36.00. Rusty Carver had the most sponsors and received $2.50. With his 12 sponsors he raised $16.10. Other participants included Lenora Chilton, Roger Louderback, and Butch Smalley. Together they raised a total of $77.00.

Amy and her mother, Mrs. Sandra Smalley, visited the class on March 8. Mrs. Sowards presented the award money to Elizabeth and Rusty on that day. The $77.00 was sent to the Amy Smalley Research Fund at Children's Hospital in Cincinnati.

Congratulations on a job well done!!!!!!

OHIO RIGHT TO READ

WEEK OBSERVED

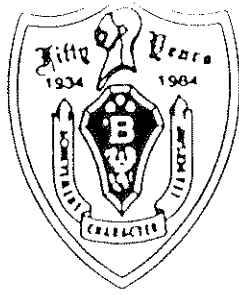

Students at Peebles High School observed "Ohio Right to Read Week," March 4-8. Seventh grade students made posters including the slogan "Make Me a Perfect Reader." All students read 15 minutes each day during the week.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

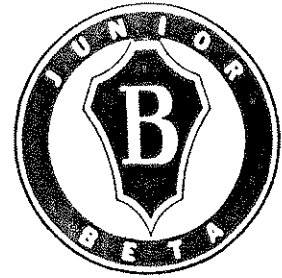

National Library Week will be observed April 15-19. The theme this year is Books are Best Friends. Many activities are being planned including teacher appreciation day, book mark & poster days & a book fair.

The books will include books by your favorite authors, mysteries, science fiction, humor, art, cook books, sports & how to books priced from $1.00-2.00.

There will be posters in the library & hall to advertize the Book Fair.

BETA WEEK ACTIVITIES

The week of March 3rd through the 9th the Peebles Beta Clubs celebrated National Beta Week. Throughout the week Senior Beta officers were heard on WRAC providing information about the National Beta Club.

Monday, March 4th was Teacher Appreciation Day. The staff enjoyed a salad bar during lunchtime and Mr. Jerry Edwards won the drawing for $100.00 worth of classroom supplies. His physical education classes will be using new volleyballs compliments of the Senior Betas.

Tuesday, March 5th the Beta officers traveled to Waverly High School to speak before 40 members of their National Honor Society.

Wednesday & Thursday March 6th & 7th, were dress-up days. All homerooms had the opportunity to display school spirit by wearing class colors on color day. Mr. Austin's room 81 enjoyed chocolate chip cookies as the winning homeroom. The judging was difficult and the level of participation was excellent. Thursday, March 7th was Clash Day. The judges again found it difficult to come to a decision and finally selected four winners. Missy Browning, Darren White, Tammy Fields and Paul Roosa shared a giant cookie that said "Snappy Dresser".

Friday, March 8th the Betas gathered on stage 5th period for a pizza party. During the day, Betas sold Favorite Senior Shamrocks for a nickel each. Johnny Wesley and Jeff Daulton were awarded a giant cookie enscribed PHS #1 Senior.

The week's activities ended with a Sadie Hawkins Dance, held after the Peebles-Georgetown game.

The Junior Beta Chapter was quite busy during National Beta Week, March 4-8.

Monday, March 4, was Teacher Appreciation Day. Junior Beta President Kim Rae Newman took memo pads to each teacher. A Junior Beta meeting was held during second period. The pizza party was discussed.

Tuesday all Betas wore their Beta T-shirts.

Wednesday the Jr. Betas had a meeting after school and discussed their party-dance and tried to decide on a club trip.

Thursday was Dress-Up Day. Beta's were to make an impression and look important. There was an assembly during seventh period for Junior Betas only. Dr. Walter Knauff talked to the group about leadership.

Friday the Jr. Beta club had a pizza party to top off a great week.

We would like to thank the faculty for their cooperation during Beta Week, especially those who took time out to judge the contests. A special thanks goes to Mr. Austin, Mr. Matheny, and Miss Mefford for displaying their fashion talents. As usual, Mr. Darby was cooperative in scheduling the various events. Thanks to Mr. & Mrs. Lewis, Mr. Ginn, Miss Mefford, Mr. Darby, and Mr. Anderson for chaperoning the dance.

The activities at the OVVS were very successful thanks to Mr. Morgan and Mr. Potts.

Finally, the Betas would like to express their appreciation to the students who took part in the week's activities.

FFA

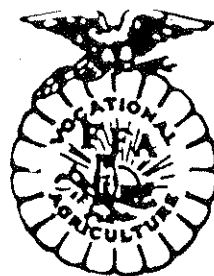

FFA TRACTOR TROUBLESHOOTING CONTEST

The District 12 FFA Tractor Trouble Shooting Contest was held on February 28 at Laurel Oaks Vocational School near Wilmington. The purpose of the contest is to test students' knowledge of mechanics and tractor maintenance. Each team of two students must find mechanical problems in tractors and then correct them within a designated time limit. The students are also given a written test.

Representing the Peebles FFA Chapter were Tim Johnson and John Savage. Randy Stevenson, an FFA Alumni member, accompanied the team. Results are not available, but will be announced later when they are released by the District.

FFA

LEADERSHIP--CITIZENSHIP DAY

John Savage, President of Peebles FFA Chapter at Peebles High School and Vocational Agriculture Instructor James Faust met with the Honorable Cooper Snyder, member of the 116th Ohio General Assembly at FFA Salute to the Ohio State Legislature Breakfast in Columbus on February 6, 1985.

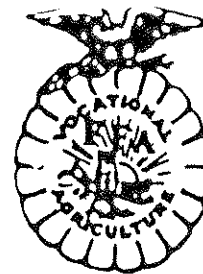

Dr. James E. Cummins, Director of the Ohio Agricultural Education Service and the State Officers of the Ohio FFA Association informed Ohio's legislators and leaders in education and agriculture about the Agricultural Education programs being conducted in local, city, and joint vocational school districts to train individuals for occupations in the agriculture industry.

Vernal G. Riffe, Jr., speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives, and Paul E. Gillmor, President of the Ohio Senate, and Dr. Franklin B. Walter, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, addressed the 450 individuals in attendance.

The FFA members and their teachers spent the day touring the State Capitol and Ohio Supreme Court, and attending sessions of the Senate and House of Representatives and committee hearings on proposed legislature.

This activity was sponsored by the Ohio FFA Association and the Ohio Vocational Agricultural Teachers Association.

FFA

THE GRAPEVINE

Hey Aletha, we hear you have a secret admirer, but that you're mad at him. Tell us, Aletha, could you and your secret admirer become friends again?

Renee LaPorte, we see you have been taking lessons on babysitting. How are the lessons coming along?

Hey, Chris Williams, we hear that you don't like many boys from Portsmouth. Could there be a guy from Peebles who has caught your eye?

Hey, Pam S., we hear you and Brent G. are going to try again. We wish you luck!!!

Sonya, congratulations on your new guy. He's a cutie.

Hey Susie Hedrick, what happened between you and your friend from West Union over the weekend?

We hear that Terry Arnold is keeping the flower shop in business. Tell us Tricia, do you deserve such gifts?

Gina, we hear that you and Tim broke up this past week. After all this time is it finally over?

Bonnie B. and Barb B., we hear you are having some problems. What's it all about?

Aletha, is Chris, Andy, or Johnny the real Mr. Right. Can't you decide?

MOVIE Review

TURK 182: A manipulative, paint-by-numbers movie that traces the outline left behind by "Rocky". This one is about a young man (Timothy Hutton) who paints graffiti all over New York City to protest the mistreatment of his brother, injured while saving a young girl from a fire.
(PG-13)

FAST FORWARD: Great dancing, minimal plot in this story about a group of young performers from Ohio who head for a talent contest in New York City.
(PG)

THE MEAN SEASON: Kurt Russell is a journalist whose name becomes more than a by-line on a story when a killer whose murders he's been covering turns on him.
(R)

LOVE

I love you for what you are
Not what you were set out to be,
You have your faults, and your guilts
Just like every, including me.

Life is something special
It's something special to me,
And without you living in it,
Life just could not be.

I know how I feel,
And I say what I mean.
Life is something more
And not just what we've seen.

So come with me forever,
And together in life worth living,
And what people we could be.

I'll say it one more time,
Exactly how I feel,
Life is something beautiful
And you are much too real.

By Amy Woodrum

Love isn't how much you touch each other but,
How much you reach out to each other.

Amy Woodrum

"Love"

My love for you--it is so strong
It's like a river deep and long
And with this poem I hope you'll know,
My love for you will always grow.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY LEGEND

Saint Patrick, the Patron Saint of Ireland, whose special day the Irish celebrate on March 17, was born in what is now Scotland. He lived in southwestern Britain in the days when the Romans were abandoning the island to its fate and before the English had appeared. He was educated as a Christian. When he was 16 he was carried off by pirates and sold into slavery in Ireland. After he had spent six years as a swineherder in Ireland he escaped a ship bound for Gaul (France).

For a time he lived in Gaul, where he became a monk and then returned to Britain. After his return he dreamed one night that he heard the Irish calling, "We pray thee holy youth, to come and walk amongst us as before." This, Patrick decided, was a missionary call to Ireland. He returned to Gaul where he spent 14 years preparing for his work.

In 432 he arrived in Ireland with the title of bishop and the pope's blessing and began the work which was to make the patron saint of the island. He did much to establish Christianity firmly, building churches and monasteries and converting the people.

Many legends grew up in Ireland about St. Patrick. Among them is the story of how he forced the snakes and toads of Ireland to fling themselves into the sea. It was claimed there was no night for 12 days after his death on March 17, 461. Another legend says that he lived to be 120. This legend accounts for 493 as the date of his death.
