It was the summer; after graduation when I and my; ()) see good friend, ANITA WORKMAN, were in the Eastgate Shopton ANITA WORKMAN, ping Mall in Cincinnati. They were promoting the movie in the "Back to the Future, Part II", and a man in a grey tweed suit was describing a "new and improved" time machine. As we walked closer we could hear him explaining how the time machine worked and the use of its control panels. He asked for a couple of volunteers to test the machine, so Anita and I raised our hands. Guaranteeing our safety, he flipped the latch on what looked like a door, and we sat down in a sphere-shaped time machine. The panel controls looked very complicated but he assured us that it was all very simple. we had to do was punch in the numbers of the year, and the letters of the people or places that we wanted to visit. We entered the year 2001, fifteen years after graduation, and then, the 1986 graduating class of Peebles High School. Lights flashed, and the sound of a light hum filled the inside of the time machine. Everything went black, then we found ourselves, believe it or not, at the "County Line". DAVID STEPHENS, BRIAN SWANGO, and RONNIE JOHNSON have remodeled and extended it to their taste, and they are famous for their homemade whiskey and wine.

The next place we visited was Brooke's Funeral Home, which the now filthy-rich BOBBY BROOKE owns. He bought out Lafferty's, so now he gets all the business. As we travelled, we found that many more of our friends have opened shops and businesses. PATRICIA BOWENS and GEORGIA WORKMAN have opened a hairstyling salon, and they create anything from traditional to multicolored "punk", which is more like Georgia's style.

BARB BOYD and TRICIA KNAUFF own the Riviera, where many mischievous events occur, while JANET EDWARDS is the sole owner of "Top Jo" and has a chain of dairy bars across the state. DAVID FLAGGE owns a nationwide chain of parts and service stores known as "Scooters". The Honda Shop in Rarden has a new owner, JERRY LEEDY, and it is now called "Jerry's Honda Heaps". He seems to be doing quite well--he rides in a limo, owns a beautiful home, and has a dozen servants taking care RACHEL MILLER turned her love of chocolate of it all. into a huge money-making business. She owns "Miller's Chocolate Company" which is located all over the United Also working with her are TANGIE SMALLEY, the vice-president of the company, and LESA PENDELL, who is the secretary. After eating all that delicious chocolate, they keep in shape at JEFF JONES' Fitness Center that he opened in Jacktown. He still holds arm-wrestling contests and wins every one. MICHELLE LANE-ROWLAND is still happily married and the owner of a day-care center. She keeps her own children there while she works, and JANIE LITTLE, who is also married, keeps her children there too. CARMA ABBOTT is an assistant at the center. SHARON CARROLL and her wonderful husband own the ritzy Greystone Hotel, while BECKY BROWNING owns the Legion. KEITH ARTHUR owns a runaway shelter near the "center", and RICHARD OWENS owns a string of "Family Dollar" stores all over the county. DIANA THOMPSON, who is happily married, is a very perceptive business woman. She is the vice-president of the "Keebler Company". JILL BREWER has a very important job pertaining to her secretarial skills; sheis now the Executive Secretary for the President of the United States. She also has a very active home life with her husband and children.

Many of our friends are famous now, whether nationwide or statewide. LENORA CHILTON is married to a rich oil tycoon and together they own half of Texas.

DENA BEARD is a Dallas Cowboy Cheerleader and CAREY
MCKENZIE, who is jealous because of her skimpy outfits, is a Cowboys quarterback. Also known for sport talents are MIKE TOLLER, who plays centerfield for the Cincinnati
Reds, and MARK SANDERS who is a trainer for the Boston Celtics.

CHERYL KELLEY and BRENDA ISAAC are the leaders of an all-female rock band. They got their start in show business when their friends, TAMMY RIDER and BARB GRAGG played their record on 96 ROCK. They are regular weekend disc jockeys on the radio station, and even guest star on  $^{\rm M}{\rm TV}$  once in awhile.

BOBBI JACOBS has built a career in modeling. has made millions as a model for Sears, because she has her own line of swim wear and sports wear labeled with her name. As Anita and I looked on, she was being prepared for a shooting session by three make-up artists. We didn't know whether to laugh or take pride when learned that KELLY WILLIAMS, a chemist, won the Nobel Prize for finding a cure for AIDS. Kelly always was a whiz in Chemistry. It seems that SHANE McCOY and TOMMY WHITE are famous in a way that fits their skills; they are very big Mafia leaders who make millions. STEVE ARNOLD has a career that's not surprising--he's a race car driver--but it's funny that he owns a winning "Chevy"! Sorry, Steve! ANGIE McINTOSH is happily married and is running for Governor of Alaba-She is sure to win because she has gained popularity by starring on the soap "Days of Our Lives."

WAYNE NICHOLS also has his own show, which runs on Sundays and Wednesdays, called Reverand Wayne's Gospel Hour. MATT SANDERS has also become a preacher. He has a huge church filled with about a thousand followers. People come from miles around to hear him preach. AUDRA SMITH has gained fame as the captain of a space shuttle that has just landed on Mars. She plans to stay there and test survival conditions.

Some of our graduates are known locally. CONNIE WILLIAMSON-BENNINGTON now owns the Messenger is now a daily paper and usually contains fifty pages of news. DENISE ALLENDER has an advice column called "Dear Denise" and she never stops running out of advice. DANA McCLANAHAN writes the gossip page; she gets all her information from reliable sources and DIANE HOLBROOK and KEVIN CROSS are the top reporters. TIM BOSIER is now the Mayor of Sinking Spring while TERRY WILLIAMSON is sheriff. They keep the people of the town "in line". DEBORAH BOERGER is bartender and owner of a bar in Manchester, and manages all the entertainment. BURNS is the head waitress and is protected by KELLY LUCAS, DENNIS HAYSLIP, and DAVID STEPHENSON, who are the brawny bouncers of the bar. MICHELLE LEE is known all over the country for her farm. She has made millions from "Tennessee Pride" because she has the largest pig farm in the United States.

It's too bad that some of our friends have had hard luck so far. JESSE ADAMS and DANNY COUNTRYMAN are on skid row. They were kicked out of Ozzy Osbornes' rock band after being too rowdy at a concert. ALAN LUNDY was thrown in the stockades after driving a jeep over BRIAN CLINE, a four-star general, and SHANNON JOHNSON, also in the Army Forces, is retired. He was shot down during Air Force raids over Libya. WARREN HUFFMAN, a gambler, is being sued by a casino in Las Vegas. He is three million dollars in debt and he can't pay them off. GEORGE RILEY, his trusty attorney, is handling his case and pleading temporary insanity. The case is being handled by Judge BILL HEMMING, who is secretly an investor in the casino. Looks like the case is already lost for Warren.

Only two out of our class have made a career in medicine. SONYA CLINE, who has now been married for fourteen years, is a registered nurse at Bethesda Hospital. GARY FOSTER is the head of staff there. Sonya, after a year of therapy, lost her fear of blood.

We also found that JOE REEVES and LISA LLOYD are married. Joe is racing motorcycles in the Georgia Motocross Circuit and when Lisa cheers him on from the stands he wins every race. MICHAEL ROBISON is a spy for the FBI and PAUL ROOSA is a truck driver and the leader of a motorcycle gang. CHRIS WILLMAN, who has great water skiing abilities, now owns a resort. He also gives lessons in water skiing. DARRIN MILLER and FRANCES SLOAS are married and living in a bamboo shack in Haiti, while JULIE MYERS-ESTEP is living overseas with her husband.

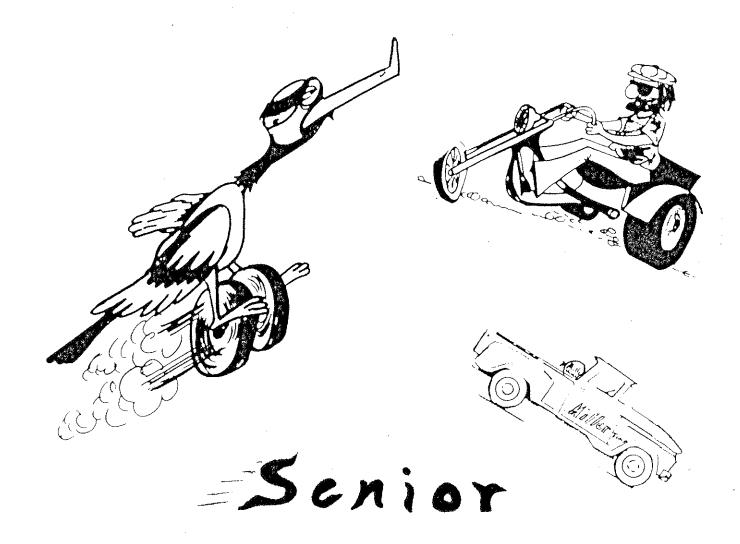

The last place we visited was good old Peebles High School. KIM BALDWIN is the Principal and doing a terrific job, and BRIAN McKENZIE is Assistant Principal. The Guidance Counselor is RENEE LaPORTE, who's still dating high school boys, and JOHN HILLGER is the baseball coach. ANGIE AUSTIN is the high school girls' basketball coach. She took over after Tom Newman retired at age 53. Her heart was in better condition, and he taught her everything he knows about basketball. She was sure to be right for the job.

There are many new clubs being introduced to the students. Among them is "The Coonhunter's Association" which has a total of over one-hundred members. EUGENE JOHNSON is their advisor. TENA DAVIS teams up with

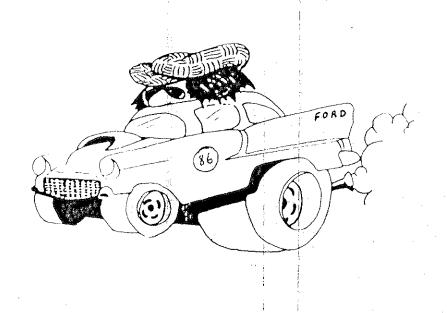

ANGIE PURDIN in teaching Driver's Ed. Angie helps the students with driving laws while Tena teaches a course called "Bicycle Safety."

After talking over all the different events that have happened in the last fifteen years, Anita and I almost forgot that we hadn't discovered what our occupations were going to be. Suddenly we were sitting in the seats of the time machine again. The door opened and the man in the grey tweed suit said, "How was your trip?" We told him that it was wonderful to see what happened to our friends, but we were excluded. The man explained that we had seen what everyone was doing at the exact same time, fifteen years from now, and that we had been in the time machine for only four seconds. We realized that we hadn't seen what happened to us because at that time, fifteen years from now, we were travelling in a time machine. We had already seen our future.
